My story started in Wroclaw, Poland and I was working during the winter breaking a child care centre.

I felt that I was bringing something new and exciting to these children when sharing cultures.

You cannot escape from travelling. I have been to 4 countries in 7 weeks.

I wanted to have a greater impact on society and my project in Malaysia on raising awareness of HIV & AIDS was ideal.

Every time I finished my workshops, I knew that I was doing the right thing.

I got to experience the culture and meet people that combined to create an un-forgettable story.

My reason to go to Africa was mainly to step out of my bubble and go to an environment I had never experienced before.

I connected with children that I taught and at the same time learnt from them as well.

The streets were full friendly and music which made me join in their culture with such joy.
